Building Faithful Families - resources to use at home!

BFF – Building Faithful Families! Let's Talk about Emotions.
Spend time with your children engaging in understanding emotions. By helping children engage in games involving emotions, they can better articulate what they are feeling and they can understand others' emotions better, too.
This months re-source is Feeling Flashcards for a fun feelings game. You can pick up this resource from the Welcome Desk in the Narthex or Jan can email them to you – Let her know at jan@good.org if you would like a set.
